

CALVIN'S POLAND UPDATE
April 2011

Cześć from Gdansk!

Thank you so much for your prayers on the Gospel workshop that took place in Gdansk in April. There were 300 Poles that attended and another 100 children that participated. And for the final concert there were 400 in the audience. It was a full weekend and we were truly blessed by the Lord.

Clint did an awesome job sharing in God's Word. I had the opportunity to lead the prayer times and enjoyed them very much. Prayers were being offered up to the Lord in Polish and in English. I am always amazed at the big picture of God when I hear people praying in two languages. It is a reminder to me that God is bigger than any language barrier and cultural difference that we will experience. Thanks again for your prayers!!

Clint sharing from God's Word

I am excited to announce to you that this Sunday 6pm (10am mountain time or 11am central time) we will have our first church service at Gospel Church in Gdansk. We are very excited about this opportunity that the Lord is giving us. We will meet the second and last Sunday of every month through the summer. Our goal is to meet every Sunday starting in the fall.

Clint will be sharing in Colossians through the summer so please pray that those attending will have an open heart to God's Word and the Gospel of Jesus Christ.
