

GREEN LIGHT

A Go For PNG

FOUR AMIGOS

We had an enjoyable time this Christmas as we spent some bitter sweet time with friends and family.

Prayer Request's

Wrapping things up

Anxiety is starting to set in for all of us now. Please pray that we continue to keep our focus on the Lord.

Packing

We are still sorting and deciding what we really need to take with us. Please pray for wisdom as we continue to pack. Thanks to all who gave suitcases for our trip!

Moving Sale

Thanks to all who helped out with our sale. We had a good turn out and brought in a profit of $1,800.

Pot Luck

Mitchell Berean Church is going to do a Pot Luck Jan. 15th following the 11:00 service. We would love to see you before we take off.

Departure

We will be leaving the morning of Jan. 18th and flying out of Denver that evening. We will arrive in PNG the 20th. Once we get settled we will send out emails.

WHAT'S AHEAD FOR 2012

We are counting down the days until departure. With 10 days left we are finding ourselves a little anxious. We are spending some last bitter sweet moments with supporters, friends, and family.

We have truly been blessed this last year by so many of you and as our time here comes to an end, I find that my eyes begin to well up with tears just thinking about saying goodbyes.

Support Level: As of date we are at 86% of our recommended amount. What does that mean? We are only 14% away from being fully funded!!!!

God continues to grow our team and more people are sharing an interest in this ministry. Would you join us in prayer that God would fully fund this ministry.

We can't say Thank You enough for being a part of this Team!
