

God at work on Craigslist? To read more go to our BLOG!

Because of the heart for mission He has blessed me with in recent years a small group of us began a bi-monthly in home Bible study. The two leading the study? Retired missionaries from Papua New Guinea. He is actually Australian by birth, she is from Southern Illinois, and they met and were married during their time serving the mission in New Guinea. Was I surprised to see on your blog that this is where your mission calling is? Not really. I have come to expect those connections from the Lord. These days it just causes me to stop and say, "Okay Lord, where are you going with this one?"
